

Russia to Tighten Hold on Satellites

Washington, July 7 — (AP)—The wave of nationalist feeling sweeping eastern Europe has spurred a flood of rumors about possible drastic moves by the Russians to tighten their hold over the satellite countries.

These rumors include unconfirmed reports of Soviet troop movements in Romania and Bulgaria toward the Yugoslav border. They also disclose a revival in Europe of the old speculation that Russia may try (a) to annex Romania and Bulgaria as Soviet republics and (b) to put the Red Army back into Czechoslovakia, from which it withdrew at the end of the war.

About the most that can be said for the rumors at the moment is that they are receiving careful study at the State Department and national defense establishment.

The prevailing opinion among Washington officials seems to be, however, that while the Russians find themselves in a tough spot in their own satellite spheres they will try to solve their difficulties without resorting to the open use of military power.

But this situation could change instantly. A Yugoslav move against Albania, for instance, would give the Russians a perfect excuse for coming to the "defense" of an ally.

Belgrade has been tossing out warnings to Albania since that country sided with the Communists in the celebrated Yugoslav dispute.

Early today a Tass dispatch from Tirana said Albania is taking "strong measures" to guard her borders with Yugoslavia and Greece against "hostile elements."

But there was no mention of any actual border clash.

The view that Russia will refrain from any outright military move also is expressed by officials here in discussing the Berlin situation.

There the Soviets have run headlong into a stone wall of opposition from the western powers. Diplomats said today that any doubt remaining in the Kremlin about the intentions of the United States, Britain and France to hold their places in the beleaguered city must have been destroyed by the notes which all three governments sent to Moscow yesterday.

Washington, London and Paris agreed to keep the notes secret while the Russians think them over. But it is understood authoritatively that each country demanded an end to the Soviet blockade and emphasized the right which the three western nations claim to continue their occupation of Berlin.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS
Chicago July 7 — (AP)—Wheat came to life and moved ahead a couple of cents in fairly active dealings on the board of trade today. Corn tried to gather some strength from the wheat advance, but ran into a number of selling bursts which often sent prices below the previous close.

Several reasons were back of wheat strength. Among them were re-entry of the government into the flour market, the heavy purchases of wheat in the Southwest by the government, crop deterioration in Canada and a feeling prices were due for a rally.

There were even some mildly pessimistic reports on American wheat to support the buying. The Russell-Miller Milling Company of Minneapolis said weather was too hot for wheat in the northwest, adding "dry spots in the territory report crops fading fast."

Wheat closed 1-2-3 1-4 higher, July 32.31 3-4, corn was 1-4-1 14 higher, July 32.08 1-2-4, oats were 5-8-1 18 higher July 8 35-8 12, and soybeans were 1 go 2 cents higher, July 34.08.

Wheat prices climbed in the spot market today along with futures trading basis unchanged; bookings 50,000 bushels shipping sales 10,000 bushels; receipts 50 cars. Corn was about unchanged; basis unchanged to 1-2 cent higher bookings 50,000 bushels; shipping sales 20,000 bushels; receipts 46 cars. Oats were unchanged to a cent more; basis likewise unchanged to a cent up; shipping sales 22,000 bushels receipts 12 cars. Soybeans receipts were two cars.

Congressman Taber & Co. have assumed a big responsibility in doling out funds to the atomic scientists. Yet they have dealt with the funds as if the atomic energy program was just another routine political matter.

But the Atomic Energy Commission is not just another agency. It is not simply a bomb factory. Its activities are concerned with life as well as to cancer's cure as well as to incredible destruction. Yet it is conceivable that that key might be lost or at least misused if, in the last analysis, the course of atomic research were to be directed by politicians rather than by scientists.

4. Reiterated previous statements that the United States has no intention of pulling out of Berlin in the face of the Soviet efforts to drive them out.

There were only faint hopes at the State Department that Moscow would agree to the three power demands. But the note sending was regarded as an important step in building up a case against the Soviets. If the problem goes to the United Nations, delivery of the American note to Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin overshadowed another important development at the State Department. Representatives of the five Brussels pact nations and Canada started talks with State Department officials on possible American backing for the five-power alliance. They will meet again today.

Officials said the talks at this stage are informal, exploratory, and concern problems such as how far the Europeans are prepared to go to defend each other in case of an attack from the east. Later, the question of military help from the United States will be taken up.

The brewing industry strives to keep beer retailing above reproach. My favorite beer dealer, Joe Swanson, shares that desire with most of the state's dealers and works to achieve it. And Joe's neighbors, the public, benefit as the standards of beer retailing are raised.
The Arkansas Division of the United States Brewers Foundation carries on the Self-Regulation program of the brewing industry. My home town dealer, just like most dealers in the state, adheres to the program. The Self-Regulation program keeps beer retailers informed as to the requirements for lawful, clean and decent operation, and cooperates closely with law enforcement and licensing officials.

The brewing industry, through its Self-Regulation program, is constantly at work to maintain its fine reputation and to improve it further. The Arkansas Division continues this work with the objective of raising even higher the standards of beer retailing in Arkansas.

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling owes Harry Bindle a gambling debt of $10,000 he cannot pay. His wealthy wife, Miriam, has refused him the money. Bindle has come home late after dodging the law. Miriam is out. Bindle phones that he will be over at 11 to collect. Marcus is desperate. Miriam comes in, wearing her fabulous diamond necklace. In order to get her out of the house before Bindle arrives, Marcus gives her a doped drink. Keyed up, she speaks cruelly. Miriam, wounded, takes her drink to her room. At 11 on the dot, Bindle shows up. He demands the money and threatens Marcus, who takes her diamond necklace. Marcus takes her diamond necklace. Marcus is to pay up by Saturday. After Bindle leaves, Marcus sets the stage for robbery. A disconnected electric clock, set ahead to 1:30, will mark the time. Satisfied, Marcus calls for a cab to go to his club.

VIII
Edgcraft Country Club was a squat silhouette against the grayish night over Long Island Sound. From the broad doors of the main entrance and the windows of one wing beamed light but the rest of the rambling two-story structure was dark.

The clock above the desk in the main foyer showed 10 minutes of 11. Sterling glanced at his watch, frowned at the general, baldheaded man behind the desk. "Arriving at an early getaway, Travers?" he asked.

"How's that, Mr. Sterling?" Travers smiled, arresting a yawn. "Your clock's a full five minutes fast, six in fact."

Travers blinked at the clock, pulled an ancient watch from his vest pocket. "Right, Mr. Sterling, I've got 16 to one. That clock's badly over right."

Sterling arranged for a room, asked the bag to be taken to it and left a call for 7 in the morning. He dropped his coat and hat at the check room. From around a corner of the foyer came sounds of life.

Sterling walked into the grill, went over to the bar. Two men, both well into their 50's, were being served. One of them glanced around as Sterling came up. His face broadened into a smile. "Well, Marcus, my boy, Pete and I are just having a nightcap. Join us."

Sterling said, "Thanks, Mr. Shaw, I will." To the other man, who was smiling his greeting, he said, "Nice seeing you, Mr. Crabfield."

The bartender was mixing Sterling's order. "Don't mind if we dash off our drinks," Shaw said. "We're turning in. Golf bright and early tomorrow." He looked at his watch, turned quickly to Crabfield. "Hey, Pete, we'll have less than seven hours' sleep. It's almost 1 o'clock."

Sterling said, "If it isn't going to be a serious match, I'd like to join you."

"Staying out here tonight?" Shaw asked.

"Yes. Just came out, hoping I'd find a morning game. I'm rusty and need practice. But don't let me spoil your match."

"Spoil it! We'd love to have you with us. Maybe we can pick up off at 8:30! Make it?"

"Right, Mr. Shaw. First tee at a few points, Pete and I, Teeing 8:30."

When Shaw and Crabfield had gone, Sterling finished his drink, then crossed through the grill, accepting nods and acknowledging them. He halted at the door of the dining room. Half a dozen parties were still in process at scattered tables. One of them was breaking up.

Sterling stepped back as the dissembling guests filed through the door. He knew most of them and there was an exchange of nods. A woman separated herself from the others and came over to him.

"Well, Marcus, darling, so you did finally get here," she said. "Was I supposed to?"

"If I still got anything on the ball when it comes to having my way, you were. Where's Miriam?"

"At home decently asleep."

"But why waste the superfluous adverb? So she didn't yell."

"Yell? Was Miriam supposed to yell?"

"To my little scheme to have you out here tonight? But of course! If I can't have you alone, then I'll have to take you with Miriam. Don't tell me Miriam didn't even pass along my invitation! But of course she did. You said yes. She said no. Big fuss. You said so you'd come alone and here you are, even if you couldn't make it until 1 o'clock."

"Sorry, Janet, but this is the first I've heard about it."

Janet Weirhaven's normally wide hazel eyes widened even more. "That little . . . excuse me, darling, but we won't call names. She glanced around. The three couples who had made up the rest of her party had gone on a short distance and were waiting. She dug fingers into Sterling's arm and said, "Well, Marcus, until I send that manager on its way."

"But, Janet, it's a . . ."

DOROTHY DIX Good Time Charlie

Dear Miss Dix: I have the misfortune to be married to a Good Time Charlie. Of course, this type of man is never bothersome to anyone except his wife. He always has a joke and is good-natured. But after listening to his host of friends, he has no time left for his family. They eat alone. Spend many a long wearisome hour alone. He can't be depended on for any jobs about the house, as this would interfere with coming events. Nor can Charlie's wife ever utter one word of complaint on the outside, as he makes people pity "Poor Charlie" in having a hex for a wife. So it is a tight lip for her and to laugh with the crowd.

Then, too, Mrs. Charlie must work outside of the home, as there isn't quite enough money to pay the grocer after the free drinks and the outsiders are taken care of. There is always a drain on the pocketbook.

This is just a summary of what Mrs. Good Time Charlie has to go through. Of her tears and hurt feelings and family quarrels, it is best not to speak.

MRS. GOOD TIME CHARLIE
Answer: The French have a proverb about men who are the joy of the street and the sorrow of the home, and the Good Time Charlies head this list. They are the men who are popular everywhere except in their own homes. All of us know them. They are the men who make good salaries, but who never have enough money to pay the bills because they are always called upon to head the subscription list to build a Home for Disabled Cats, or to send flowers to somebody who knows somebody who thinks that somebody ought to have a testimonial given to them.

Popular With Friends
Besides, Charlie is always the one who reaches for the check when good fellows get together and have a few. Charlie's children may have their feet on the ground, but he is so tenderhearted he buys shoes for any son's kids. He neglects his own business because he is always off attending to somebody else's. And everybody is so fond of him because he is so good-natured, and they say what a fine fellow he is.

And they pity him because his wife doesn't appreciate him. They say she nags him. They accuse her of neglecting her home and her children by taking a job, and nobody knows that the reason she does is because they wouldn't act regularly at Good Time Charlie's except for the wife's salary. When you see a woman who never laughs at her husband's stories and who has a worn, tired look, you are mighty apt to find that she is Mrs. Good Time Charlie.

Dear Miss Dix: I am a 23 year old veteran, going to college, divorced, with two kids. My wife has married again. Her husband is wealthy and has taken the children. They can take better care of them than I can, but that doesn't alter the fact that they are mine and that I love them.

My wife and I still love each other, but she craves security and the finer things of life. What can I do about this deplorable situation?

Answer: Nothing can be done, I am afraid, to assuage your sorrow. For your wife has most effectively blocked any approach to a reconciliation between you and

THE TRUTH ABOUT PIN-WORMS

Serious facts are revealed by recent medical reports. One out of every three people examined was found to be a victim of Pin-Worms--often without suspecting it! And this ugly infection can cause real distress if neglected.

So watch for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms--especially the aggravating rectal itch. Get JAYNE'S P-W away. P-W is a medically sound treatment based on an officially recognized and highly effective drug element. Small, easy-to-take P-W tablets work in a special way to remove Pin-Worms easily and safely.

Ask your druggist: P-W for Pin-Worms!

her and for your getting your children back by her remarriage. Evidently she cares more for money and the things that money buys than she does for you, and she will never give up the flesh pots for you. The sooner you recognize that as a fact and put her out of your mind, the better it will be for you.

It is impossible for you to get the children back until they are old enough to have some say-so in their fate. The court always gives minor children to the mother, unless she has proven herself unfit to rear them. She has not done this. Apparently she is using them as an alibi for ditching you by claiming that she has married the rich man in order to give them advantages.

Your plight is a sad one, and the only thing you can do is to work so hard that you will not have time to think about how scurvily you have been treated.

bad taste in your mouth, your coffee (and tobacco) lose their natural flavor, your food does not agree with you; you may have heartburn, gas and dizzy spells, you may be troubled with belching; at night the gas in your bowels may press upon your bladder making you get up frequently, thus breaking into your sleep.

In the morning you are tired instead of refreshed. Gradually your health is impaired.

Your complexion may become sallow or bilious; dark rings may appear under your eyes, you may feel lazy, dull and irritable or blue and melancholic. You may have frequent colds (catarrh) or dull head-ache; your bowels stop their free, full and natural action; you have constipation, gas, putrefaction and self-poisoning ("Intestinal toxemia" or "acute gas-tritis" as many doctors call it).

HOW TO GET RELIEF
You can relieve this condition, usually overnight, by taking Calotabs at bedtime and drinking water freely next day.

The beneficial effects of Calotabs lie in the fact that they are (1) laxative, (2) antiseptic to the intestines, (3) diuretic to the kidneys, (4) effective in relieving symptoms of biliousness and acute gastritis due to constipation or faulty digestion.

Calotabs are pleasant to take (sugar coated), prompt and effective. Try them and see. Follow label directions. At your druggist's.

NATURE'S DANGER SIGNALS
When your stomach, liver, and gall bladder have been upset by improper eating or drinking, or when they are not working well because retained and putrefying food matter in your intestines is poisoning your entire body, you, sooner or later, begin to feel some of the following symptoms:
Your breath may become unpleasant (halitosis), your tongue coated, a

Fair Enough

By Westbrook Pegler
 Copyright, 1947
 By King Features Syndicate.

New York, July 6—I have been trying to imagine what the old organized New Dealers would say if it were possible to declare today that Tom Dewey at some past time received a secret gift of $100,000 from, say, Winthrop Aldrich, of the Chase National Bank and other gifts up to about a quarter of a million from other rich men. Not loans but outright gifts. They would call him a subsidized candidate of the special interests—a term that never loses its power of insinuation, although I never have been sure of its power of persuasion—and impugn his honesty and his manhood in a terrible to do. Me, too. I would burn him down, explain why the New Dealers and millions of ordinary voters, too, never have thought that it was wrong of Roosevelt not merely to accept but to solicit such a gift from John J. Raskob in 1926.

He solicited this gift of money as the price of his consent to come out of his convalescence at Warm Springs, Ga., and run for governor of New York. And he never paid a dollar back. Al Smith and Raskob, an industrial millionaire who opposed prohibition, wanted Roosevelt to help carry New York for Smith for President. Raskob says his only interest was repeal. Roosevelt had no worthwhile political record at the time but he had that name which previously in politics had been a Republican leader.

Smith and Raskob figured that he could win.

Their political judgment was all right, because he not only won but ran away ahead of Smith who made a fool of himself. Smith went clowning around the country, rapping out of the side of his mouth like a slightly modernized chimney fadden and arousing honest disgust in respectable voters beyond the allegiances with an affectation of impiety, which really did him an injustice.

Raskob got the signal from Eleanor, who was not yet known as Eleanor the Great, when he approached her at the Democratic State Convention at Rochester. She said Franklin was in debt for a project at Warm Springs.

There is something else for the history books. You can scratch off the superstition that this was a philanthropy of Roosevelt's because he never gave anybody anything.

John immediately telephoned Roosevelt at Warm Springs.

I think I was the first to tell you about this, back in 1944, when Roosevelt was still alive. He could have answered if he had the an-

Merchants Play Magnolia Here Thursday

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand Thursday night as the Merchants play the Magnolia team in what should be a pitchers' battle all the way.

Smith is a curve ball artist and has plenty of speed. The Merchants boys were heavily tossed out in the Shreveport tournament, last year's defending champions. Fall staff of Galveston, by a score of 4 to 3, after leading all the way into the seventh inning.

Magnolia team is considered to be just as good, if not better, than the Clarksville team. Smith and Hope will have its hands full from the first inning. McAlister is also entering in the Texarkana tournament to be played there next week and there is a chance that Hope will meet them again in the tournament.

The game will begin at 8:30 and Fred Robertson asked that all Hope players be at the park at 7:30, to begin practice. This will be the last game for the Hope boys before the State tournament.

In regular league play last night the Rockets downed Blevins 8-1 and VFW defeated 164 by an 18 to 9 score.

Tonight the Busybees meet 164 and the Bigdaddies tangles with the Boosters.

swear, but in a case like that you slip her in gear and drive on. It is what he did. He knew the people were so nuts about him that they either wouldn't believe it or wouldn't care.

Roosevelt said he was in for $250,000, but the truth was that it was the dough of his mother, who could give Hawks lectures in lessons in tight-fistedness. And if you think that ain't tight-fisted, remember, now, that when Ickes' first wife—the rich one who was the wife of a professor until Ickes came along—remember that when she was killed in an accident in New Mexico, Ickes didn't waste any time going down there but split a crack in the atmosphere getting to Chicago, where the estate and the probate business were. And remember that he billed her estate of what he billed himself sole legatee, for prayers that the preacher said over her for the hymns that the quartet sang, for her shroud and for the flowers that he himself, the mourning spouse laid on the casket.

He loved, the purpose of the estate, accounting was not stated, but the effect was to reduce the estate by just that much and the taxes by a corresponding amount.

One second thought, I guess you couldn't really say that Roosevelt's mother could give Ickes lessons in tight-fistedness. But he couldn't teach her much, either. Her or her boy, Franklin.

Roosevelt told Raskob he was on the hook for $250,000 and Raskob said he would underwrite it all himself, and he put in the mail that very night a check for the whole amount.

Rain Halts Play in Southern Association

By The Associated Press

Six teams of the Southern Association took a night off last night after playing doubleheaders Sunday and Monday, but there was no rest for the Atlanta Crackers and the Birmingham Barons.

The Crackers finally snapped their losing streak at seven games when they whipped the Barons 6-2 in Atlanta.

Tonight the Mobile Bears play in Atlanta while the Barons take on New Orleans in Birmingham. Chattanooga is in Little Rock and Nashville at Memphis.

Joost, Brisie Lead A's in National

By JOE REICHLER
 Associated Press Sports Writer

It can't be denied that hustle, fight and team spirit have been great factors in the amazing Philadelphia Athletics' surprising bid for the American League flag. But the reason for their success is not generally recognized, has been the club's hitting of Shortstop Eddie Joost and the steady pitching of Southpaw Lou Brisie.

The bespectacled infidel and the rookie southpaw combined their talents last night to lead the A's to a 5-3 victory over the Senators in Washington. The victory advanced the Mackmen to within 10 percentage points of first place.

Philadelphia's victory coupled with Detroit's 9-0 triumph over the pace-setting Cleveland Indians left the A's and Indian virtually deadlocked. However, the Indians have lost fewer games and lead 618 to 608.

Joost drove in two important runs, one with a home run which opened the game. It marked the fourth time this season that the deft leadoff hitter had opened a game with a home run.

Brisie, the much decorated war veteran, won his brace on his wounded left leg, was tagged for 11 hits, but struck out nine and pitched out of several tight spots to record his eighth victory. American League pitchers in the whiffs to his credit.

The Red Sox made it three in a row over the Yankees by defeating the New Yorkers 2-1 in a night game at Boston. Ted Williams emerged from his brief batting slump by banging out three hits in four times at bat.

Dizzy Trout humbled the Indians with six hits in pitching a 9-0 shut out for the Tigers in a night game in Cleveland.

Paul Lehnert eighth inning single scored Al Zarilla with the winning run as the seventh place St. Louis Browns edged out the White Sox 7-6 in a night game in Chicago.

The National League leading Boston Braves gained a game on the rest of the first division by defeating the fourth place Giants at New York, 4-3, while the second place St. Louis Cardinals and third place Pittsburgh Pirates were beaten.

Ted Kuszewski clouted a double with the top of the bases loaded in the top of the ninth to drive in two runs and give the Cincinnati Reds a 6-4 victory over the Pirates in a night game in Pittsburgh.

Ed Waitkus scored on a wild pitch and Bill Nicholson hampered his 10th home run in the eighth inning to give the Chicago Cubs a 12-10 victory over the Cards in a night game in St. Louis.

The Cards had pulled up to a 10-10 tie after once trailing 10-3. Stan Musial snacked three hits in five times at bat to boost his batting average to a ready 414.

Hank Behrman pitched his first victory of the season for Brooklyn shutting out the Phils 5-0 in a night game in Philadelphia.

Negro Slain After Wounding Three Policemen

St. Louis, July 6 (AP)—A Negro burglar shot and seriously wounded three policemen in a liquor store early today and they shot him to death.

The policemen are Sgt. Owen P. Struter, Patrolman William D. Samuels, Jr., and Patrolman William G. Lay. The burglar was not identified.

The burglar broke into the 9-0-3 liquor store across Twelfth boulevard from the Globe-Democrat building, set off an alarm, and the policemen walked in on him. Struter arrived first, and when Samuels and Lay came up he directed them to search the store for a possible accomplice. The burglar, who had been sitting quietly, suddenly grappled with Struter and got the policeman's revolver from his holster and shot him.

Samuels ran back, and he was

Gamma, X-Ray Harmful to Bones

By HOWARD BLAKESLEE
New York, July 6 (AP)—A warning to keep X-rays and gamma rays away from bones because the rays can cause bone cancer was issued today in "Cancer," a new medical journal.

This publication is a monthly started by the American Cancer Society. The bone cancer warning, covering more than 20 pages, is by Doctors William G. Cahan, Helen Woodward, Normal L. Dringeborn, Fred W. Stewart and Bradley L. Coley, all of New York City.

The dangerous gamma rays come not only from radium but from many of the new radioactive substances that are produced in atomic piles. An important fact is shot in a struggle. Lay ran up from the basement and the man shot him in the scalp. Blinded by blood, Lay threw his revolver to Struter, who was lying in a pool of blood.

The burglar ran, and Samuels fired several times. Samuels pursued him out the back door, firing, and the Negro collapsed.

Arkansas News

Camden, July 6 (AP)—Democratic National Committeeman Dr. R. B. Rabins, Camden, announced today that he had named three Arkansians to serve on the staff at the Democratic national convention in Philadelphia next week.

He named Joe S. Becker, Ponchartraine, and Maj. Sam Crawford, El Dorado, assistant sergeants-at-arms and Betty Lou Wolf Little Rock as a page. Miss Wolf, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Wolf, is a junior at the University of Texas.

Rats and guinea pigs, which have been bitten by venomous snakes, die more quickly when given whiskey or alcohol than if the supposed antidote is not given.

There is no possibility of stopping or even slowing down the manufacture of these gamma-ray emitters. They are automatically produced by whatever kind of device is used to make atomic bombs or atomic power.

The New York doctors report 11 cases of bone cancer due to either gamma or X-rays. The only difference between these rays is their source, and for cancer-making both are equally bad.

One of the most dangerous things about this kind of bone cancer, the report states, is the very long delay between the use of the rays and the appearance of the cancers. The delay time in the 11 cases ranged from six to 22 years.

Kidnaper Serving Life Term Dies in Alcatraz

San Francisco, July 6 (AP)—Alcatraz marked off a long-time resident today—life prisoner Albert L. Bates, notorious outlaw kidnaper of Charles Urschel, wealthy Oklahoma oilman in 1933.

Bates died Sunday of a heart ailment, Warden E. B. Swope announced last night.

The onetime member of the notorious George (Machine Gun) Kelly gang was 57.

The Urschel case, in which the millionaire oil prospector was released on payment of $200,000 ransom, "ended kidnapping in the Southwest before it got started," Federal Judge Edgar S. Vaughn said at Oklahoma City.

Vaughn was the judge who sentenced Bates.

The case was the first important test of the "Lindbergh Law" providing life imprisonment for kidnapers.

Urschel was abducted from his Oklahoma City home July 22, 1933 and held blindfolded and shackled nine days near Paradise, Tex. His exact timing of an airplane that passed overhead daily enabled the Federal Bureau of Investigation to discover the hideout and to arrest and convict nearly everyone of the 20 in the kidnap gang.

Harvey Bailey, leader of the notorious Memorial Day break of eleven convicts from the Kansas prison, was captured at the hideout. Bates was seized two days later in Denver. Kelly, last of the gang leaders, was trapped at Memphis Sept. 26.

The FBI recovered about $124,000 of the ransom.

Sun Affects Tempers Says Scientist

Philadelphia, July 6 (AP)—Temper flare and emotions are unbalanced, it may be due to the ultraviolet rays from the sun spots now nearing their maximum number and intensity for the first time in 11 years, says Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of Pelt Planetarium.

These beams of invisible energy coming from the sun 93,000,000 miles away can easily affect tempers of people, he said today.

Then two emotions are controlled by various glands of the body which readily may be disturbed by the sun's ultraviolet rays, Dr. Marshall told a reporter.

He pointed out the last time the sun spots reached their maximum frequency was in 1937 when Hitler began his plan of world conquest. Dr. Marshall said scientists say they don't know the "why about sun spots," but the ultra-violet rays emanating from them affect every living thing on earth.

Some scientists, he explained, contend these very short rays have produced a more prolific growth of foliage on trees and produced more abundant crops this year.

Others says the abundant rainfall this year has been caused by sun spots.

Aside from the beneficial properties, the rays also have some annoying characteristics, Dr. Marshall said.

For instance, blackouts in radio has been traced to sun spots.

Dr. Marshall said the most disturbing effects come at or just beyond the peak of the sun spots and probably will cause radio fadeouts for the next two or three years.

HAROLD'S ESSO SERVICE

HE'S NOT ON OUR PAYROLL...

but we couldn't do business without him!

When you take your car to an Esso Dealer Station for gasoline, motor oil, or a complete lubrication job—you're not really "doing business" directly with Esso Standard Oil Company, even though we make the fine products you get.

Instead, these 25,000 Esso Dealers from Maine to Louisiana are local, independent business men. You deal with the owners themselves—men who have invested their money and their initiative in building their own futures on serving you.

From many competing brands of gasoline and oil, these local business men have chosen Esso products. Year after year, they have seen first-hand evidence of the satisfaction to the buyer that Esso quality stands for.

As of today, these able business men have, on the average, handled Esso products for 12 years each.

Many have bought from us for 35 to 40 years.

Obviously, we couldn't do business without these men. And naturally we're proud of them—just as proud of them as we are of the 25,000 workers who are on our company payroll.

Both groups—our own employees and these "partners" in their independent businesses—express this company's basic belief that individual enterprise, given its fair chance to earn fair rewards—is the best way and the American way to make progress with and for all the people of this country.
